TELEGRAMS

(By Havas Agency)

London, 16th—The bank minimum was reduced to-day 3½ per cent.

Berlin, 16th—The results of the election in Hannover for the vacant seat in the Reichstag up to the present known are:—

Bismarck	5945
The Socialist Candidate	3574
The other candidates	4582

New York, 16th.—The American Government has sent a diplomatic note to the representative of the Italian Government in which he takes issue as to the amount of indemnization claimed before the result of the investigation which is at present going on is known, and adds that the only means to settle the question is to lay it before the Louisiana Courts.

STATE-BANKING AT MONTEVIDEO.

The experience of our friends on the other side of the River Plate shews that state-banking has been as disastrous there as in Buenos Ayres. The shares which were worth last year $125 gold are now down to 23, and we have reason to doubt whether they are really worth the latter price. That is, however, a question for the shareholders, and motives of delicacy prevent us from commenting on the unfortunate position of the bank. It is plain that 77 per cent of the capital is "in nubibus," a circumstance which suggests the propriety of winding-up the concern as soon as possible. In most countries when 50 per cent of the capital of a company has been lost it is obligatory or customary either to provide new capital or to liquidate it.

Is it possible to find the necessary capital in Montevideo or abroad to revive the National Bank of Uruguay? On this point we may quote the following extract from the Montevidean Times:—"Although Mr. Edward Casey has only been on shore some two or three days, his return has given rise to considerable gossip. It is even said that he has already presented a scheme for the reorganisation of the National Bank upon the base of capital provided by English bankers. It is also said there is another proposition for the same purpose from German bankers made upon the strict condition that Government abstains from all interference in the management of the Bank. The latter is certainly better worth supporting, though we doubt if the Government would accede to it."

If the Government refuse to give up all interference in the bank it is useless to propose any plan of re-organization. You may put all the gold of the Bank of England into the National Bank of Uruguay, and in two years it will be in the same sad plight as at present. We have seen the working of State-banks in Buenos Ayres, with clandestine issues and other devices, and the result is bankruptcy. On the other hand we see that banking on proper principles, as in the private banks, is eminently successful.

We have the utmost commiseration for the shareholders of the National Bank of Uruguay, whose shares are at 77 per cent discount. Their business would have been prosperous but for Government interference, and if they can prevail on Pres. Herrera Obes to accept the proposal of reviving the bank on European principles they may yet see their stock rise to par.

THE SITUATION.

Six days ago gold stood at 212 per cent premium; it touched 257¾ yesterday. This gigantic rise in gold is the best proof that the situation has suffered a serious relapse since the famous decree that ordered the summary suspension of the State banks. Affairs went smoothly until the La Plata Government and Legislature made a joint effort to save the Provincial Bank. The very rumor of such an attempt defeated all the good effects of the Government decree and drove gold up 30 points in 24 hours. Since then the ball has been set rolling from La Plata and quite a party has sprung up to save the State banks even at the expense of fresh issues of paper and "curso forzoso." Matters have gone so far that it is openly reported that a league of members of Congress has been formed to assert such views next May in defiance of the National Government. The very names of the promoters of the league are bandied about, and there is not the slightest doubt that Dr. Lopez's excellent policy will be bitterly attacked next session, say a month hence. There are many people whose sympathies have been wounded to the quick by the closing of the State banks; they still cling to a banking tradition that has been a myth since 1885, since the State banks had to appeal to suspension of specie payments to pay their way; they still believe in the efficacy of paper issues to improve the currency, pay old debts, and set the country aright. Yet we are convinced that the 'patriotic' dreams of these illusionists will be rudely dispelled by the energetic attitude of the President of the Republic and his Minister of Finance. The market, accustomed to so much vacillation since the revolution, begins to doubt, however, and hence the terrible wave of distrust that is now sweeping with full force over the situation: the tide is still rising and may take on its crest gold to 300 % premium.

But for the endeavour of politicians and sympathisers to save the State banks, the private banks might be still in the market with their exchange rates at a level in harmony with a falling gold rate. But the current has been too strong for them, and the first blast of the La Plata atmosphere has swept their exchange rates into the eddy of the rise. They were patriotic enough to sacrifice profits to help the ministerial policy, but they never reckoned on the sudden turn effected by politicians and friends of the State-banks. The exchange operations of the private banks now leave a heavy loss: the managers have burnt their fingers and will profit by the experience. Talking of exchange, we may inform the Minister of Finance that though he be supported by all the private banks, merchants positively refuse to deal in paper exchange: the business is too dangerous and speculative: it would be better to let bankers and merchants settle exchange transactions according to their convenience.

We cannot close this chapter without echoing the bad impression produced in the market by the manifesto of the popular party. People, especially commercial people, are very susceptible, and they are much afraid that the manifesto will put an end to conciliation in politics and again open the doors to a bitter struggle. These fears are, no doubt, exaggerated, but it is well to record the impression of the market, that politicians may know the weight attached to their declarations. The gold market rose yesterday mainly in consequence of these political misgivings.

DR. ALEM'S MANIFESTO.

The Committee of the Union Cívica issued yesterday a manifesto couched in such language that it sounds like an ultimatum previous to a declaration of war. The thirty-five gentlemen who form the Committee and sign the manifesto state that they represent the people and that they undertake the task of re-establishing political, economical and social equilibrium. The leaders of parties who joined the cause the 35 gentlemen represent are mere factors in the common cause to save the country. They refer to the late revolution as the "ultima ratio"; refraining from any melancholy details as to the fate of that subversive movement or to the subsequent events that entailed the fall of the Juarez Government, they point with satisfaction to the moral triumph achieved not merely by the overthrow of a government but by the revival of civic rights and the vindication of popular aspirations. The Committee, however, think that only half the programme has been carried out: it will be only completed when the country is in condition of "realizing those reforms it needs by pacific and legal means, and in that natural and organic form in which free and civilized communities carry out their progressive evolution."

The Committee goes on to say that "as a very high example of political morals and with a view of establishing an honorable precedent in our democratic habits, the Union Cívica nominated its candidates for the next Presidential election, and that the opinions of all are subordinate to that nomination." Those candidates are a "synthetical formula" of the elements of the party. The Committee state that there is no opposing party to face, excepting scattered groups of the Autonomista party, which is no longer "a visible political entity;" therefore, that many local Governments formed by that party represent "nobody;" they are merely accidents in government, bound to disappear when an appeal is made to the people for the renewal of men in power. The Committee point with great satisfaction to the fact that even the opposition to the Union Cívica are agreed as to the necessity of the triumph of the new cause, in order to reorganize the nation «in its institutional, political, and economic order." The Committee are resolved to maintain in all their purity their convictions and high purposes of regeneration, that they may be a beacon to all who wish to restore the honour and prosperity of the nation.

After reading such declarations, it is not to be wondered at if the Committee beg to assure the country that they are proof against any corrupting influences. Nevertheless, they are willing to welcome under the folds of their patriotic banner all those who are willing to join the cause, excepting those whose incorporation might be deemed indecorous. The Committee are determined to carry out "the purposes of the party, in other words, the assertion of popular rights, with those means which are in harmony with their mission;" they will, therefore, exact and may accept from Governments the strict fulfilment of their duties as rulers: they refuse to compound with those who endeavor to continue the fatal system that has afflicted the country: last not least, the Union Cívica is always ready for the struggle wherever there is an Argentine whose rights are injured or coerced. In resumen, to use a precise formula, "we declare to all our partizans that we ratify these principles and shall vote for the candidates nominated in the Rosario Convention." Thirty-five signatures follow.

THE ENGLISH LITERARY SOCIETY.

The Half yearly General Meeting of this Society was held at 732 Cuyo on Wednesday evening last, the Vice President, Mr. Edmund Reydams, in the Chair, Professor Martin, the President, being absent through indisposition.

Directly it was ascertained that a quorum was present, Mr. Blayden rose to order, and called the attention of the meeting to the fact that, as the notice published in the English Daily Press in accordance with rule 23 was not in his opinion, sufficient, no legal meeting could take place.

Dr. Hiron considered that the notice was undoubtedly sufficient, and, in his well-known, vigorous style, declaimed against a system of hair-splitting and pure obstruction. Mr. Peake supported the views of the last speaker, being followed by Mr. Lowe who endorsed the opinions of Mr. Blayden, as also did the Rev. J. H. Gybbon Spilsbury. Mr. F. Percy spoke on Dr. Hiron's side, and pointed out that if it had been intended that rule 23 should bear the construction put upon it by Mr. Blayden, the framers of it would have used similar words to those employed in rules 3 and 9.

The Chairman then asked Mr. Blayden if he wished to make any motion, and received a reply to the effect that, as no legal meeting could be held, no motion could be made.

Dr. Hiron then moved that the business of the meeting be proceeded with; seconded by Mr. Bulfin, and carried by 23 votes to 16.

The minutes of the last General Meeting were approved by 26 votes to 9; but upon several members claiming that they should be signed "under protest," the Chairman immediately put the question "that the minutes be signed under protest," when 11 voted in the affirmative and 25 in the negative. The minutes were thereupon signed in the usual manner.

The poll for the election of six members of the Committee and three "suplentes" was then declared open, Messrs. F. Percy, Horace Dobson and C. L. Hayward being appointed scrutineers. Upon their return being presented, Mr. Blayden and the Rev. J. H. Gybbon Spilsbury objected on the ground that no quorum was now present; Dr. Hiron and Mr. N. Barnes having pointed out that according to the Rules a quorum was only necessary at the commencement of business, the Chairman overruled the objection.

Upon reading the return, it was found that the Revds. Pelham Ogle and Moir-Porteous and Messrs. Barnes, Christie, Goode and Pilling were elected members of the Committee, and Messrs. E. W. Darmer, Gebbie and W. S. Smee "suplentes."

Mr. Bulfin proposed a cordial vote of thanks to Mr. Pascoe G. Hill, the late Honorary Treasurer, and Honorary House Steward of the Society. Seconded by Mr. William Graham, and supported by the Chairman, who warmly eulogised the services given to the Society by Mr. Hill; carried unanimously and enthusiastically.

After votes of thanks to the scrutineers and the retiring members of the Committee had been passed, the meeting terminated after a sitting of two hours and a quarter.

OUR LONDON LETTER.

FINANCIAL GOSSIP.

(From our own Correspondent.)

Mar. 21.

In financial matters the most important event is Mr. Drabble's speech at the meeting of the Madero Dock Company, inasmuch as it further illustrates the difficulty you have in Buenos Ayres of meeting your gold engagements. On the other hand, Mr. Drabble's assurance that, in spite of all reports to the contrary, the docks were well constructed and needed no serious alterations, gratified the "certificate-holders." It seems we cannot yet say bond-holders. Mr. Madero has telegraphed that remittances will come forward in time for April interest, but he could not specify the exact date of remittance. Meanwhile the London Standard publishes a telegram from Buenos Ayres containing an account of General Mitre's reception, a part of his speech and political programme, and the announcement that the Mitristas and Roquistas had joined hands. All this, coupled with the decline in the gold premium, keeps Argentine securities tolerably steady. Besides, it closes the mouths of bears, "statists" and pessimists, and encourages the Money-Market Review, amongst others, to expostulate with the London press for allowing itself to be earwigged by interested insects that crawl here, as well as in Buenos Ayres, into the auricular channels of "holders and investors"—holy men whom it advises to be on their guard. "We affirm," says your money market contemporary "that nothing can prevent an ultimate and great recovery in Argentine finances. The days in which we live are distinguished by developments in regard to capital of a cosmopolitan order. Money will inevitably flow fastest to those quarters in which the largest returns are to be obtained. Look at the rates of dividend yielded by the Anglo-Argentine Banks and other financial establishments that have grown up in our midst. Nothing, we say, can prevent a great flow of capital to a country where such rewards as those are being offered and where the inducement is greater by reason of the severe depreciation to which values have been subjected. And were Great Britain, which is once more overflowing with idle money, to be guilty of the unwisdom of refusing to help through temporary difficulties a debtor in whom she has so large an interest and a customer whose trade has always been most valuable, it is perfectly certain that the Germans, French, and other continental people would "cut in" and supplant us."

That's the "city" to a T. I remember reading almost the same words when all of us went into Argentines ten years ago.

But Uruguay is the pet of the hour. The President's Message published in the Montevideo Times has been read here with satisfaction.

We did not at first quite understand the six per cent unissued loan for two millions sterling which Baring Brothers held, but President Herrera clearly explains the transaction and we see that as long as Mr. Lidderdale's protegé—the honest Uruguay Government—goes on paying the interest it may suit all parties. No doubt the regular funded Montevideo Government loan which Baring's support to the National Bank appears to have ended in will be a better asset for the guarantors or for the "House" if by and bye it is quietly issued when financial matters run smoother on both sides of the River Plate. In Baring's assets the loan is taken at 50, leaving a very safe margin if the people in Montevidoo are going to turn over a new leaf and be prudent and honest enough to make prudence pay.

Mr. Edward Casey, I believe, returns to the River Plate by this steamer, which he will overtake in Barcelona. I have had the pleasure of seeing him more than once and can guarantee that he is in famous health and spirits.

The Murrieta conversion, of which I sent you information days ago, is now as you will see an accomplished fact. In fact all goes on merrily, and if you manage your political contest well and good-humouredly you may cease groaning. That at least is the present opinion in London.

MONTE CARLO.

Of John Law, the notorious promoter of the Mississippi bubble and the virtual inventor of a paper currency, it is recorded, in his declining years at Venice, where he died in 1729, his means of subsistence were exclusively derived from the gaming-tables. Starting with a very small capital, the remnant of his once colossal wealth, he would repair at a stated hour every day to one of the innumerable gambling-houses which then abounded in the neighbourhood of St. Mark's Place. He never risked more than a certain sum—a very modest one—at play: If he lost his maximum he went quietly home, to risk an equal sum on the morrow; if, on the contrary, he won he forbore from backing his luck. Directly his gains amounted to five ducats he prudently withdrew, to turn up with unvarying punctuality the next day. Now, in the case of the famous financier, it would seem that there was exhibited the type of a model gamester. Impulsive players might think that Law lacked cleverness, as well as courage, by leaving off playing when he was winning, and that he ought to have doubled and quadrupled his stakes so long as Fortune was favouring him; but John Law knew much better, and was fully aware that Fortune, as aforesaid, had an ugly habit of ruining her votaries at the very moment when they thought themselves certain of breaking the bank. That little fishes eat sweet was evidently his motto as regards the "tapis vert;" and, although he realised no fabulous sums, as he had done when he was Comptroller-General of the French Finances, he contrived to live in modest competence, and found a garret on a side canal, and an unobtrusive diet of pigeons, sardines, and macaroni, to be quite as sufficing as the sumptuous hotel in the Place Vendôme which he had possessed, and the splendid hospitality which he had dispensed, in the days when he was the favourite of the Regent Orleans and the idol of the French people.

Recent intelligence from Munte Carlo is to the effect that the Administration of the Casino are troubled with a good many patrons—or, rather, parasites—who in their operations at the roulette and trente-et-quarante table pursue precisely the same system of tactics that were successfully practised by Law in his decadence. They earn a questionably honest livelihood by playing daily and going away so soon as ever they have won a moderate sum—say, three or four louis—which, assuming that they had four good days against three bad ones in the course of every week, would furnish them with quite a nice little peculium on which to exist. Like their celebrated predecessor in the past at Venice, they are never led away by the perilous fascinations of the run of luck. Their dream is not of scores of thousands but of hundreds of francs, and if they are beaten they return to fight another day. Now this is precisely the kind of gamblers whom the Administration do not wish to see in their gilded saloons and their marble halls. The managers have no objection to their patrons occasionally winning large sums, since it renders them all the likelier to lose larger amounts within a short time. There was a notable Spaniard, some years ago, who had been a drummer in the Spanish Army, and who, in the last days of gambling at the Kursaal at Homburg, contrived to break the bank there no fewer than three successive times. "We shall see the drummer again at Monaco," observed, with a quiet smile, the estimable M. Blanc; and, sure enough, no sooner had the pleasant Inferno been transferred from Homburg to the territory of the illustrious House of Grimaldi than the drummer turned up again once more to try his infallible martingale and to be swiftly and ignominously broken up into very small pieces indeed. The Administration do not mind the appearance of a drummer now and again. He keeps the game alive, and in nine cases out of ten it is only a matter of time for him to be irretrievably ruined. With the quiet, steady, soon-contented punters the case is widely different. They are as the drops of water which in the long run wear out the stone of prosperity, and it is said that the directors of Monte Carlo have taken steps to modify this continuous leakage and dripping away of their profits into small but always gaping purses by diminishing the number of the parasitic habitues. Consequently the authorities of the Casino have decided to repeat a former experiment of withdrawing all the permanent tickets of entrance, and making a fresh issue at the beginning of the New Year. Over three hundred persons, it is said, were estopped in this manner on the 1st of January last. Now the pleasant news has been wired from Nice that the weather on the Riviera has become much warmer. The thermometer, which had dropped to thirty-eight degrees Fahrenheit, has risen to fifty-six degrees. English visitors are now pouring in to all the Riviera health and pleasure resorts, and the joyous festivities of Nice, with the more elegant and refined social gaieties of Cannes, will soon be in full swing. Naturally, large numbers of our fellow countrymen gravitate to Monte Carlo. Some will go thither because it is close to Mentone, or because the new Hotel Metropole at Monte Carlo itself is so very comfortable and so admirably sanitated. Others will be attracted by the beauty of the seashore drive from Nice and the quaint picturesqueness of the old town of Monaco; while yet another section of pleasure-seekers will take delight in the subtropical vegetation of the gardens of the Casino. Of course nobody is obliged to gamble there. No limit is put to the benevolent courtesy of the Administration. They disburse a handsome annual revenue to his Highness the Prince of Monaco; they pave and light and sweep and garnish the promontory of Monte Carlo; and in the Casino itself they supply light, warmth, capital instrumental music, and a reading-room provided with most of the newspapers and periodicals of the civilized world. If among the members of the highly respectable British classes who are flocking and will flock to Monte Carlo as fast as the train will carry them there should happen to be a certain number who are anxious to back the red or to put their money on their favourite number, or even on fatal zero, they need not dread being repulsed at the entrance gates by a vigilant "commissaire de police" and his staff, and will get their admission cards easily enough.—Daily Telegraph.

FOOTBALL.

ST. A. A. C. v. BUENOS AYRES.

It will probably be remembered that these clubs met at Flores last season in a friendly game, the B. A. then being the winning team. The match on Sunday last was of a different description, as both clubs had something at stake, the winning or losing of two points in the first of the "League fixtures". St. Andrew's having won the toss, Disbrowe kicked off for B. A., and after about 15 minutes' play H. Anderson scored for B. A. After this the play was pretty even, the game being two goals each at call of half time. In the latter half B.A. were unable to increase their score, while St. A. added 3 more goals to their score, leaving them winners by 5 goals to 2. Being early in the season, both clubs have had little or no training, so that at the return fixture a more close contest may be expected. As regards the players, J. Buchanan and J. Caldwell were the best forwards on the field, the former especially, he scoring 3 out of 5 for his side. Woolley at half for B.A. was almost impassable, his tackling and placing being faultless, whilst in the back division Waters and Francis were the best, whilst Bob Anderson played a splendid game for B.A., his weight telling greatly against the St. A. forwards. Norwood (goal) made a slight mistake at the commencement of the game, but made up for it in the second half, saving in splendid style.

B. Aires—Goal Millar, backs Anderson and Morton, h. backs Woolley, Macadam, Taylor; r. wing Anderson and Rowland, centre Disbrowe, l. wing Guy and Crowe.

St. Andrew's—Goal Norwood, backs Waters and Buchanan, h. backs Francis, Barnes and Shaw; r. wing Lamont and Moffatt, centre J. Buchanan, l. wing Caldwell and Morgan.

Umpires—A. P. Boyd (B.A.) and G. Ellis (St. A.) Referee—T. Bruce (B. A. E. H. S.)

The first football match between the Belgrano and the Caledonia clubs under the rules of the Argentine Association Football League took place on the ground of the latter on Sunday the 12th inst., and was won by the latter club by six goals to nil. The Caledonians started the game with a slight breeze in their favor, of which they were not long in taking advantage, and bearing down on their opponents, within ten minutes had the ball through the goal. The Belgrano then made an attempt to equalize affairs, but were never able to get past the Caledonian backs, who had very little to do throughout the game. The Caledonians then, with the splendid passing done by the forwards, added other three goals, when half time was called. During the second half it was thought that the Belgranos would score, having the wind in their favour, but the ball was hardly ever out of their end of the field. The Caledonians seized other two goals, making a total of six goals to nil. Due praise must be given to the Belgrano's goalkeeper, who repeatedly saved his charge from the ball sent into him from the front division of the Caledonians. The teams were as follow: Caledonian—Gibson, Laird, Gifford, Philips, Angus, McEwen, Carnu, Whyte, Sutherland, Wilson, Rigg. Belgrano—Hughes, Davis, Stainford, Bayne, Rivers, Brodie, Hind, David, Lane, Martin, Brodie.

TRAIN TO MERLO.

Buenos Ayres, April 15th

Mr. Editor,

Regarding the new time-table of the Western Railway of Bs. Ayres, which has come into force to-day, I have had some correspondence with the manager of the line, Mr. Roberts, to procure a change of the evening train in the interest of the many business-men who are seriously affected.

May I ask you to peruse the correspondence and to help me, if possible.

It certainly is of some difference to me whether I get home to Merlo at 7.45 or at 10 o'clock at night, and that for the matter of 15 minutes, which cannot matter to the company at all, as I will prove to you. The train in question, leaving the Once at 6.20, arrives at Moreno at 7.30 and has to return to Buenos Ayres from the latter station, according to time-table, at 8.20. The same train, when leaving the Once at 6.35, as solicited, would arrive at Moreno at about 7.45 and thus have still ample time—say 35 minutes—for changing the engine. A similar operation is done in Merlo every morning in 10 minutes, the time accorded by time-table being 20 minutes. So, when I allow 35 minutes for a work of 10 minutes, there can certainly be no excuse for lack of time, the train being a mere local one between the Once and Moreno, in not complying with the just desire of a certain class of people who have not the privilege of being able to leave their offices before 6 p.m.

W. Kruinberg.

[Ed. Note.—The correspondence is too long for insertion, and we can only appeal to the well-known courtesy of Mr Roberts to do what he can to please the public.

P. S.—We have just received news that Mr. Roberts has put on a train at 7.20 from Once.

THE POST-OFFICE.

513 Piedad,
15th April, 1891.

Mr. Editor,

The Post-Office authorities are doing their level best to foment two most important industries.

The ceilings and walls of our Post-Office are being touched up. In London the authorities would order the painters and whitewashers to perform their arduous duties at night; but in Buenos Ayres the work is done in broad daylight, and at a time when the greatest number of persons are hurrying hither and thither, vainly endeavoring to light upon

Buzon para la ciudad
Buzon para el interior
Buzon para el exterior
Buzon para Paraguay
Buzon para Uruguay
Buzon para ultramar

or some other of the many "buzones" which are now dotted about the various court-yards with a view of bewildering the public.

And the two trades benefited? Well I this morning saw, at a very low estimate, some score of buzon-seekers bedabbled and bespotted from head to foot with old paint scrapings and new whitewash, both of which were flying about for all the world like a fall of sleet. And I don't think a hatter or tailor in town would begrudge the man who gave the order for that work to be done during the busiest hour of the day the stiffest "copa" he (or the biggest toper going) could quaff.

Yours truly,

J. Brown.

SALVATION ARMY SHELTERS.

Mr. Editor,

Owing to the number of applications I am arranging to put two more rooms at the disposal of the poor people who nightly come to our shelter. So far we have paid the rent of these rooms and also the cost of the beds and blankets, as we could not leave these people to sleep on bare boards, until we were able to get the necessary help. What few blankets and beds we have are quickly appropriated by the first comers and the rest have nothing but hard planks.

Much as I regret it, morning after morning these poor people have to go away hungry, and many of them return in the same condition at the close of the day, as I am utterly powerless to help them without assistance from outside friends. There are surely in this city many who will come to the assistance of these poor ones and enable us to do something for them.

I have heard with pleasure that in Rosario, where we have no branch, several gentlemen have formed themselves into a committee and by monthly contribution are giving away food to the poor. May I ask that some of your charitably disposed readers will kindly assist us, in the first place to obtain blankets and beds, and then by a monthly subscription, however small, will assist me to give them food before they leave in search of work in the morning.

Three of the men who have been coming to our shelter found work and then, quite unsolicited, paid for their beds. Amongst the applicants are many really deserving people who have no home in these hard times of adversity.

If any of your readers would kindly promise us a daily supply of bread, meat, coffee, sugar, etc., I will arrange for the officer in charge of the home to call for it.

Believe me,
Yours very sincerely,
Alfredo de Barritt,
Major.

THE YOUNG MEN'S CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION.

Mr. Editor,

The Annual Meeting of the above Association was held on Monday evening the 15th inst. at 417 Montes de Oca where the Association's head-quarters are established. The meeting was a large and representative one, and proceedings were characterized throughout by earnestness of purpose. The following were the Committee elected for the new year: Committeemen: Messrs Torre, Clutterbuck (J. R.) Tenney, Shrewsbury, Moore, McCarty, Barr, P. Crewe; Treasurer, Mr. G. Graham; Auditor, Mr. F. Fletcher; Secretary, Mr. G. G. Froggatt.

I make the following extracts, which I think will prove of interest to the many friends and sympathizers of the Association, out of the annual report of the Secretary, Mr. Moore. "The Association has been a centre of happy fellowship for young men; the meetings for the keeping alive and developing of the spiritual life have been over and over again a source of richest blessing to the young men who frequented them. In aggressive work, we must refer to the Mission Band. Every young man in the Band has to take up some work, principally in visiting districts which have been mapped out and looking up the English-speaking people and inviting them to the meetings, leaving with them tracts etc.

"The results have been satisfactory. Two of our Band have commenced visiting the British Hospital patients every Saturday afternoon." This is little indeed when we consider the blessedness of such work, and we trust very soon to hear of a very great advance in this direction.

"The Committee are anxious that the physical needs of young men shall not be lost sight of, and the first instalment of a gymnasium may be seen in the patio. Moonlight games of football have been enjoyed, and matches—football matches, of course—have been arranged. If more young men will join this branch of Y.M.C.A. work it may develope finely. What shall hinder our young men from fulfilling their duty in this particular? The Association has on its roll at present about 54 members and 24 associates. We want more young men. Our Association should have some three or four hundred members on its roll. No doubt the Y.M.C.A. may be, and should be, an unmistakable blessing in a city like Buenos Aires. We should remind every member that if the work is to be the great success it ought to be, it will only be so in proportion to the efforts put forth by each member. The crisis has resulted in the loss of some of our best members—best for amiability of character and enthusiasm for work. May others speedily be found who will worthily fill the vacancies left. Saturday evenings have been devoted to lectures, essays, etc. The following words of warning from our beloved treasurer should touch both the heart and the purse of every member and true friend of the Association:—'Owing to the falling off in the additional monthly subscriptions, in the sub-rentals, and in the increased expenditure incidental to our new quarters, it has become absolutely imperative that some further method should be made to avoid the threatened inequality in our receipts and expenditure."

The Association discussed one or two matters of the highest importance, concerning which I trust I shall have something definite to inform you ere very long.

George G. Froggatt,
Secretary.

RAILWAY ITEMS.

Mr. H. Barfield, lately Resident Engineer, has been appointed Assistant General Manager of the Great Southern Railway.

The receipts of the Central Entre Riano for January 1891 amounted to $42,954.66, and the outgoings to $32,207.31; balance $9,747.35. The receipts show an increase over the corresponding month of 1890 of $11,012.06.

The East Argentine has asked the Government for permission to construct a third class station at Santa Ana, at kil. 63.

At the request of the Buenos Ayres and Rosario Railway Company, and on the approval of same by the Board of Engineers, the National Government has determined to apply to Congress for permit to expropriate for account of that railway a stretch of land, ten metres wide, from San Martin to Campana stations: in some parts the expropriation to embrace a width of 20 metres.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Gloom, gutter and general pessimism ruled the roast yesterday, and the Gold Eagle kept on his upward way. Rumour's tongue was busy about coming events, and most people agreed that an earthquake, a tidal wave, or a Hopkins storm would be a quite comfortable calamity compared with the eternal see-saw of gold and politics and the unbearable alternation of hope and fear daily imposed on business people by the present state of affairs. Some few philosophers take matters coolly and wait for Old Father Time to cure the whole wretched muddle.

There is a strong feeling among the British community in support of the views expressed by the Rev. Pelham Ogle to compel the committee of the British Immigration Society to co-operate in the efforts on behalf of the Naposta colonists. The ladies who are working so strenuously to provide a home for the children intend taking a house for the boys and expect that the Immigration Society will give them some aid. If the society do not think it expedient, we think the sooner it be put in liquidation the better.

A rousing fire in the coal stores of the Gas Company at Montevideo was the only hot news from that quarter yesterday.

The Damas de Beneficencia's appeal to the public to save the Foundling Hospital was nobly responded to yesterday on the Bolsa, where the children of Mammon subscribed $7000 in a couple of hours. The Jockey Club, with its enormous Sunday receipts, is also expected to come down handsomely; the National Government has promised $10,000 a week, and all the rich families in town are called on to come to the rescue. Gaunt Want is beginning to stalk abroad—the worst of all the phases of the crisis.

An enterprising "sujeto" was nabbed in the London and River Plate Bank yesterday while trying to convert a forged cheque into shinplasters.

The return sent to us yesterday from the Labour Office shows that there are only 192 situations now open there; so those out of work should apply at once.

A contemporary states that the many-sided National Minister of Finance is about to turn his attention to the square-the-circle problem of how to cheapen beefsteaks and mutton chops in the city markets. We hope H. E. will be more successful than the other numerous geometricians who have perished in the attempt.

Suspension and reorganization are the order of the day. The Madero Bequest was suspended yesterday until further notice. Another London illusion dispelled by the blasting breath of the crisis.

The Government ordered the payment yesterday to the Sociedad de Beneficencia the sum of $53,000 due to them for the month of February.

The Bombshell decree has played "viejo Enrique" in Santa Fe. Dozens of people lodged money the day before it appeared, and now they are left with "their mouths open, and their pockets empty." Three victims are especially to be pitied—the widow Lehman $200,000; Mr. Iturraspe $280,000; Mr. Palacios 23,000, and a lot of smaller fry.

King Mud was on his throne in full state yesterday. Goloshes appeared in all the windows of St. Crispin's followers, with thick-soled boots to keep them company. Wiggins says there will be little or no Autumn, and that people must be prepared to plunge into winter at a few days' notice. We're ready.

Two cow-boys had a quarrel the result of which was a summons for assault. During the trial in Arkansas, a club, a rail, an axehandle, a knife and a shot gun were exhibited as the instruments used in the assault. It was also shown that the assaulted man defended himself with a scythe, a revolver, a pitchfork, a chisel a handsaw, and a dog. The jury decided that they would have given a dollar apiece to have seen the fight.

It is said in Montevideo that the Rigoni Port scheme for that place is likely to be the favoured one of the score and a half sent in. Our austere neighbours would do better to curb their inclinations in the Port-making line till better times; or the Governor of the Bank of England—Lord Lidderdale that is to be—may have occasion to change his "tant soit peu" good opinion of their financial condition at the next "court" held in Threadneedle Street. The Madero Legacy here should be a warning to them.

The stunning discovery has just been made that a port lighter violated quarantine by communicating with the steamer Wordsworth while she was supposed to have yellow-fever on board—but had n't. As the affair is a month old, and there was no yellow fever in the case as feared, it seems rather useless to rake up the business now.

On May Day the G. P. O. will again put in circulation those useful articles eight-cent stamps, with Rivadavia's effigy, pink colour.

The following salty paragraph may serve as a hint to some hard-up genius and enable him to "reorganize" his exchequer by cudgelling his brains:—"A prize of 10,000 florins has been offered by the Dutch Government for the best practical solution of the problem of putting up salt in small packages so that it will keep dry. The discovery—if made—will be a great boon to many sections of Spanish America, where it is now almost impossible to prevent moisture from invading the packages in which salt is kept. Indeed, one of the curious things in some of the South and Central American cities, is to see whole boxes of salt spread out on the sidewalks to dry."

A "gato por liebre" fraud has been discovered by the captains of jerked-beef ships at Montevideo, who declare that some of the saladeros are mean enough to make a large proportion of their "charqui" of old horse, instead of the genuine bovine material. The delicate palates and stomachs of the sable consumers of the delicacy led to the discovery of this fresh development in commercial morality.

Nephew (with newspaper): "They're having a hard time trying to settle the Hungarian Diet question." Aunt: "Why don't they give him just plain pork and beans?"

To-night and to-morrow night Irish and Olmi will finish the mammoth Auction Sale advertised in another column, and which began last night. The biggest Bazaar in town does not afford such bewildering choice of articles of all kinds as these well-known auctioneers are now selling for whatever they may fetch. Those in want of "odds and ends" are certain to find what they require.

Old clothes are now what all the charitable societies of all nationalities are calling for loudly. Unfortunately, the Crisis has hit so hard in spheres that were almost affluent a year ago that "ropa vieja" is by no means so plenty as it used to be, the owners being now only too glad to have it to get touched up and fall back on what they would have turned up their noses at when their pockets were better lined with shinplasters.

Another shameful Civil Register marriage in this city is reported on the heels of the idiot girl's case in Rosario. An adopted father forced his daughter to marry his brother; and the poor young thing says that she uttered the word "Yes" before the Registrar under fear of the threats held over her. She has applied to the courts to annul this forced marriage. We strongly opposed the Civil Marriage Law when it was enacted, and the results are justifying our opinion. Such forced marriages as those recently denounced were not possible under the old order of things.

The Salvation Army seems to have rather a perilous campaign before it in Australia, judging from the following Thursday, April 16.

The anxiety in the market continues to grow as gold rises, and it is apparent that the bifurcation of the two roads is again in view, with the invariable doubt as to which of the two will be taken. Then the political situation, far from shewing a smooth front, seems to shew symptoms of being troubled; and although politics and finances do not run on the same plane, in this clime there is a subtle connection between the two that the market has often had reason to lament. In fact, the break seems to have lost its hold on the State car, and we are running down hill again with daily increasing velocity. How all this is to end is no longer an open problem. There are only two solutions possible, and on the choice hangs the fate of the comm

At the second hour business was fairly brisk in gold, but very leaden in stocks, and it would seem that the latter have been ousted altogether by the gold quotations. The ounce fell from 57.70 to 56.60, the latter rate corresponding to 348 %, and although there were many buyers over, the tendency of the market was for a fall: Sovereigns fell to 17.80, closing at 17.85. A rather brisker business was done in Cedulas, but prices reflected no improvement, and Catalinas and National Bank shares were in the same case. A small lot of Spanish Bank shares changed hands at 93, which shews an advance on the previous quotation.

The following is a summary of the business effected in stocks and shares to-day at the second ring :—

The exchange market is reported decidedly weaker, and, owing to the great fluctuations in gold, nothing is done in paper. Rates are quoted at 48½d., 5.10 francs and 4.41 marks.

The Government has approved the contract made by the Central Lands and Colonies office with Don Tomas Bridger by which the latter is conceded an area of 8 square leagues of land in Tierra del Fuego between 66° 49' and 67.30' Long. Greenwich, the Gable and adjacent islands being included.

Mr. Luis Bornet has laid before Government for approval the statutes of the Andine Club containing 80 members, who have subscribed 30,000 dollars capital.

We call attention to Messrs D. Hogg and Company's advertisement in another column.

The suspension of the Lucas Gonzalez extensions has been followed by the suspension of the Port Works, which took place to-day. The details of the arrangement are not yet known, but everybody was discussing this news, not so unexpected as significant of the practical bent that affairs in Government circles has assumed.

Dr. Susviela Juarez and Mr. E. Fyn have laid before Government for approval an invention that can be applied in the City Improvement Works. It consists of a species of coal through which the fetid liquid of the sewers is filtered, disinfecting the water and permitting its free use for irrigation if required, as well as facilitating the use of the refuse for manure. The system is in use in Paris, Berlin, Dantzig, Milan and 145 towns in England, giving the best practical results. It is expected that the Government will lay the matter before Congress to secure privileges for the use of the system.

The South American Journal of 14th March says :—

"The Baring liquidation is said to be proceeding in a most satisfactory manner. Of the aggregate of the firm's acceptances assumed by the guarantee-ing syndicate (estimated at about £17,000,000), there were outstanding at the close of last week an amount not exceeding £4,500,000."

The Custom House receipts to-day were as follows :—

	m/n
Imports...	$140,180.76
Exports...	26,886.86
	137,067.57

Returns up date: 12,352,729$ paper and 122,048$ gold.

Messrs. Boadle and Co. have applied for packet privileges for the Strabo.

Mr. M. Roudam has applied to the Government for 10 years" permit to extract guano, saltpetre, sulphates, etc., from the deposits on the Southern coast of the Republic. He offers to pay the Government at the rate of 2$ per ton of guano and saltpetre, and 3$ per ton of sulphates shipped.

The neighbors of Ajo have applied to the Government to reopen the Custom House at that port and it is expected that Minister Lopez will accede to their request.

The Montevidean port statistics for March, says the Montevideo Times, are not a whit more cheering than those of the preceding months. There is a falling off both in the arrivals and the departures, and the balance still remains heavily on the wrong side. With only 823 arrivals to 1929 departures, the loss by emigration amounts to 1106 persons. Of the departures 1060 were fickle Italians.

Passengers arrived per Pacific packet Potosi :—Messrs. A. Moulton, Frank Leach, E. Adrien Subercaseux, A. Fernandez, Jose Zarate and Catalina C. Romero. She brought £150,000 for the English Bank.

Mr. Francisco Raynelli sold the following properties :—

WOLSELEY SHEEP SHEARING MACHINE COMPANY LIMITED.

El Recreo, Azul, Marzo 3 de 1891.

Srs. AGAR, CROSS & CO., Calle Defensa 136.

Muy Señores Mios,

Tengo el gusto de comunicar a Vds. que las 4 maquinas de Esquilar sistema Wolseley me han dado un resultado satisfactorio y no queria darles este informe hasta no haber concluido con la esquila de borregas. La maquina trabaja bien, esquilamos con facilidad cualquiera oveja por mas fina y arrugada que sea: saca mas lana que la tijera y tiene la ventaja de no cortar, pero si en algunos casos rasguña descuidandose el esquilador. Estas lastimduras sanan facilmente, y se han en cada vez menos cuanto mas practica se adquiere. No he notado que se me hayan muerto animales por esta causa.

Convencido de su eficacia pienso colocar doce aparatos para la proxima esquila y creo poder hacer facilmente el trabajo con ellos. Puedo asegurar a Vds. que los esquiladores mas torpes aprenden facilmente, prefiriendolas a la tijera.

Pueden Vds. darle la publi idad que gusten.
